

ON A CLEAR DAY -- and there is one now and then, as is proved by this shot of Second Ave. one fine morning when a Santa Ana (or is it Santana?) blew the smog out to sea. The second picture was taken on a recent afternoon, when the mountains had disappeared. Air Pollution Control Association is sponsoring "Cleaner Air Week," Oct.

22-28, but did not promise to completely clean up the condition that has people talking, as well as snuffing and crying.

It's 'cleaner air week'

Oct. 22-28 has been designated as "Cleaner Air Week" sponsored by the Air Pollution Control Association, which even released some balloons in Fontana Monday, and scheduled a mobile air sampling van at the County Court Building, 6th and Mountain in Ontario Friday.

Hours during which technicians will demonstrate equipment and describe its purpose are 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The committee in charge of "Cleaner Air Week" came up with some suggestions on how air can be made cleaner in the form of a half dozen questions:

1. Is your furnace free from dust and scale? Is it properly adjusted for safe and clean operation?
2. Have you cleaned your fireplace chimney for safe operation?
3. Has your automobile been checked and adjusted for efficient operation, thus reducing tail pipe emissions?

4. Do you have leaves and

Supervisors will assist in battle for water

SAN BERNARDINO (CNA) Still smarting from criticism that they were responsible for the Metropolitan Water District vote against the Rialto Reach, shutting the West End off from new water sources, County Supervisors Monday voted to join in legal action against MWD.

The Board also voted a "memorial" in behalf of its chairman, Daniel D. Mikesell, absent on vacation, for his efforts to provide water for the western part of San Bernardino Valley.

"The chairman has been discredited," said Supervisor S. Wesley Break, "by misinformed critics. He did not mention that it was Mayor James Christensen of Upland, who first blamed the Board and Mikesell for lack of action.

"It's very unfortunate," stated Supervisor Nancy Smith, "because the entire Board has been active in the whole water plan."

"I think the action was wrong and I would like the Board to go on record as willing to take action to bring water to the West End," said Supervisor Ruben Ayala.

Robert A. Covington, administrative officer, reported that the Chino Basin Municipal Water District is taking court action to try to force MWD to change its stand. He added that the county could join in that.

"We have two matters here," Break stated. "Let's take them one at a time." The Board then voted its support for Mikesell.

Next, Break asked Stanford Herlick, county counsel, if the county could participate in the suit started by the Chino Basin District.

Herlick replied that the county could take part in the action on an "amicus curiae" basis. This means as a friend of the court, and the Board voted unanimously to have the county counsel's office enter the suit on these terms.

West End to sue for state water

Directors of the Chino Basin Municipal Water District Thursday instructed their general counsel to prepare a lawsuit designed to force Metropolitan Water District to supply the West End with Feather River water.

Oct. 10, directors of MWD, responding to what was termed a power play by Joseph Jensen, 80-year-old head of the powerful water facility, voted to kill construction of a portion of a distribution line that would have supplied the West End with state water from the East Branch Aqueduct.

Jensen's move, that robbed the West End of its water rights, killed construction of the Rialto Reach section of MWD's Foothill Feeder system. Instead, Jensen used his position to force a vote in favor of building the $240 million Center Section of the feeder system to supply the eastern portion of Los Angeles and parts of Orange County. The Rialto Reach project would only have cost $40 million.

Water engineers said it will require 10 years to build the Center Section while the Rialto Reach could be finished by 1972 in time to accept state water. They also reported that the areas to be served by the Center Section will not need supplemental water for several years.

News loaded with goodies

This week's Upland News is loaded with prizes, surprises and savings galore--plus a free vacation week end for some one--the beginning of a "new era" for merchandising in the "Greater Upland" business sector.

Highlight of the new drive to attract economy-minded shoppers to the local merchants' stores is a Discount Coupon page which will offer weekly inducements--some are really impressive and valuable free cash credits and "get-acquainted" gifts. For example, this week's offers include:

--many coupons are to be accepted same as cash by merchants on purchases $1, $2, and $2.50 cash credits are to be honored by certain firms.

--10% to 50% discounts are offered by many stores, and most items are new merchandise, featuring national brands.

--substantial reductions in prices are featured on foods, gift items and home furnishings.

--and free offers appear.

In conjunction with the program to stimulate consumer attention, the Downtown Upland Merchants Association, with the cooperation of the Merchandising Dept. Upland News, is offering a three day, all-expense paid "funspree" in San Diego and Old Mexico.

The trip includes free air transportation on Bonanza Air Lines from Ontario International Airport, free auto rental, complimentary tickets to Jai Alai, weekend horse racing at Caliente, a cruise on the Pacific, and three days' and two nights' lodging, with refreshments at Vacation Village on Mission Bay near San Diego.

The free trip will be awarded Sat. Nov. 4, with further details to be published next week. Upland downtown stores are registering names for the drawing--and this week's edition contains three coupons which may be left at the participating stores, which will also supply an additional coupon for each visit.

Ted Atwood, president of the merchants' group states the public is only partially aware of the truly wide selection of fine merchandise available in Upland, and that the new program should tend to prove not only is fine, quality merchandise on hand, along with Upland's well-known "hometown" personalized service, but also prices featured will prove that Upland can offer customers true savings and convenience, too.

Three named top Chamber Fireballs

Upland Chamber's "Fireball 12" are out beating the bushes in team competition to sign new members of the Chamber before the Nov. 19 dinner meeting of the group, after trophy awards to three top salesmen in October competition.

The Fireballs celebrated the end of one competition and the start of the next with a Halloween party at the Uplander Motor Hotel. Most valuable players in the just-closed world series were Ted Lyman, who brought in $200 in memberships, Dewey Cable, with $150 and Clint Thompson with $75.

Teamed up under Lyman as captain of the "Gobblers" are Thompson, Russ Hazen, Fred Nielsen and Roger Luby (Fireball chairman).

Council acts on centers--Civic, Town

Upland City Council wound its way through a maze of technical resolution Tuesday night, and through those instruments moved the Town Center Project and parking additions and the Civic Center a little closer to reality.

Councilmen also approved Caborca as Upland's sister city, if negotiations to that end can be consummated;

Council also--

--set public hearings on Town Center and parking;

--approved Caborca, Sonora, Mexico, as Upland's sister city, if negotiations to that end can be consummated;

--issued a strong proclamation in favor of completion of the state water project and Metropolitan Water main lines to serve this area; --referred a request for a subsidy to Corbett Transit lines to committee for study. Corbett wants the city to give him a subsidy as Ontario has done so he can stay in business. More discussions expected at the Nov. 7 meeting;

--authorized Councilman George Gibson, as Parks and Recreation Committee representative, to meet with Upland Elementary School District trustees, offering city help in reseeded Pioneer Junior High grounds if the school district will permit Upland's Pop Warner teams to use the grounds.

--set a public hearing on an ordinance concerning the city's acquisition from developers of park fees or land for Nov. 21;

--discussed the miserable

state of the City's application to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for funds to develop a golf course adjacent to

Justice building question

While all the plans have been in the work for the Upland Town Center and Downtown Revitalization, little or no mention has been made of a vacant building on a key corner, the old Justice Court building at First Ave. and Ninth St.

Rumor says there has been some discussion of it, as possibly an interim civic auditorium until one can be built in the new Civic Center at some future date.

Purchase of the building by the City has also been suggested, it is understood, as a good investment in real estate, as well as protecting the key corner at the entrance to the Town Center.

If the idea is acceptable to the people, City and civic leaders would no doubt appreciate hearing more ideas on how the building could be used during the next few years.

Foster Grandparents at Pacific State

Susie Michaels is a charmer. She has flawless olive skin, bright, bold, black eyes, a straight body, a wonderful smile and loves her "dolly".

Susie (not her real name) is a patient at Pacific State Hospital, and her "grandmother" is a member of the elderly low income group. They've been brought together by "Foster Grandparents" -- a war against poverty program funded through the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency of Greater Los Angeles.

Understaffing is a major problem in almost all health facilities. According to Project Director Steve Bromfield, "The Foster Grandparents Program brings to mentally retarded, hospitalized youngsters the personal attention and tender loving care that no hospital, no matter how well staffed, can provide."

Bromfield said, "There are four areas of 'therapy' with which Foster Grands will be concerned: (1) Rocking Chair-giving the child that necessary touch of tender loving care. (2) Reading what child doesn't enjoy a story from Grandma. (3) Blind Program -- Opening a "sighted" world by helping the child explore his world. (4) Habituation Project -- teaching simple play, social and work habits.

To qualify, Foster Grandparents must be 60 years old or more, able to read and write, physically well, mentally alert and have an annual income of no more than $1,500, if single and $2,000, if married. They earn $1.50 per hour.

Jomeruck, Mrs. Thomas

Brennan, Mrs. Eldridge Stueve, Mrs. Earl Ranney, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. Joe Yee, Mrs. Harold Horman, Mrs. Carl Hogle, Jr. and Mrs. Dennis Nordstrand.

In the tradition established by pioneer women who drove covered wagons out to meet new settlers with fresh water, food, and supplies, Welcome Wagon Hostesses call on newcomers to the community.

They carry messages from the community's religious, civic and social service organizations, and bear gifts from public-spirited business people, who sponsor this continuous service.

The hostesses also invite newcomers to attend the Newcomer's Club meetings. This organization has grown to such proportions today that more than a million homes are visited each year.

Our Upland Welcome Wagon Newcomer's Club helps to make our community a better place in which to live by making all of our members feel at home in our city and community; encouraging religious participation; creating good will, understanding and neighborliness among all people in our community; and contributing to harmonious and concerted efforts through the year to welfare and humanitarian projects.

Appleby House goes to Girl Scouts

The addition of APPLEBY HOUSE to the properties of the Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council was announced today by Mrs. Joseph Axline, Council President. This beautiful home with spacious gardens and swimming pool is located at 119 Armsley Square, Ontario, and was the generous gift of Mrs. Jerene Appleby Harnish, former Publisher of the Daily Report.

In making this gift, Mrs. Harnish stated, "I believe in the Girl Scout program because the organization is actively engaged in preventing delinquency by providing activities that will help create healthy, responsible, well-adjusted citizens for our future."

Mrs. Harnish was given this home by her late husband Frank Bell Appleby and she has resided in the residence for the past 36 years. The Appleby name has been prominent link with business, political, philanthropic and social activities throughout California and more especially Southern California.

"APPLEBY HOUSE, given to the Girl Scouts by Mrs. Harnish in memory of her late husband, will be used for a Service Center within the Chaffey District," according to Mrs. Axline. She further added, "no daily troop meetings are planned for this facility; however, it is anticipated that selected troops from the area will be permitted to use the swimming pool and barbecue facilities by providing a special occasion outing for the girls."

"An eighty foot redwood tree that has long been a landmark in the Chaffey District, particularly with its array of hundreds of colorful lights at Christmas, will be illuminated each Holiday Season by the Girl Scout Council in keeping with the tradition commenced by Mrs. Harnish," concluded Mrs. Axline.

Missionary to speak before Church group

Congo missionary Mrs. Bernard F. Davis will speak on "Drums of Determination" at the Wednesday Nov. 1 meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship, Upland Christian Church, at 10 a.m. in the former Upland College dining hall.

Mrs. Davis and her husband were commissioned as missionaries in 1951 and, after a year of study in Brussels, Belgium, went to the Congolese village of Wema for orientation. There she taught in the elementary school and was supervisor of the 600-student boys' school.

Mrs. Davis, a native of New York state, grew up in Whittier, Calif., receiving her B.A. degree from Chapman College, Orange. During her college years, she was associate playground director for the Wilshire YMCA, Los Angeles, followed by a position as physical education teacher for Lexington, Ken., elementary schools. In 1957 the Davis family, which includes two children, moved to Mbandaka where she assisted in various duties of the mission station including school, church and social work.

From Mbandaka the Davis' went to Bosobele, an isolated fishing village on the Ngiri River, in 1962. There Mrs. Davis was counselor to the women's work, taught sewing classes, and conducted school for her own children each morning.

Since 1964 the Davis family has been in Bolenge, Democratic Republic of the Congo, where she is treasurer and secretary to the principal of the Congo Christian Institute, an interdenominational school.

The morning program will include a short business session, worship meditation led by Mrs. Paul Link, and special music.

Following the meeting, there will be a salad luncheon with Mmes. Link and Inez Olin, hostesses.

Mortgage burning league ceremony

Four years ago, on Nov. 19, 1963, a ground-breaking ceremony for Assistance League of Upland's new center took place at 8593 Archibald Ave., Cucamonga.

Tuesday evening (Oct. 17) the mortgage for that same building was burned.

Mrs. Robert Walline, who was League president at the time of the ground-breaking, and Mrs. Jerene Appleby Harnish played major roles in ceremonies for both occasions. At the most recent, they were joined for a festive evening by 125 guests for a champagne reception planned to honor Mrs. Harnish, whose donations totaling almost $45,000 enabled the League to complete payment on the building in only three years following its completion.

The reception, highlighted by the mortgage-burning, took place at the League Center. Afterwards, a dinner-dance and program were given at Red Hill Country Club, with the Ray Moshay orchestra playing.

It was Mrs. Harnish who wielded the spade for the ground-breaking, and it was she who Tuesday night ignited the mortgage for the ceremonial burning.

Mrs. Walline offered the toast: To Mrs. Harnish, for her belief in our past, for making the present possible and for giving Assistance League of Upland its challenge for the future.

From the pink invitations printed in burgundy to the pink and burgundy decorative theme to the pink parfait dessert, the evening was planned with Mrs. Harnish's personal preferences in mind. Some of her friends and family were special guests, and messages arrived from many whose schedules made it impossible to attend.

Mrs. Jerry Pettis read a note of regret from her husband, whose Congressional obligations necessitated his remaining in Washington. It was she who unveiled the large bronze plaque which will be hung in the League Center's main entry. It reads: Assistance League of Upland gratefully recognizes Mrs. Jerene Appleby Harnish for her unceasing and enthusiastic dedication to the Girls' Club of Cucamonga, October 1967. Mrs. Robert Wayne was plaque chairman.

Mrs. Harnish's son, Carlton Appleby, publisher of the Escondido Times-Advocate, offered a tribute to his mother during the dinner program. Harnish was also an honored guest. It was his architectural firm, Harnish, Morgan and Causey, which made a gift of the building plans to the League.

Other honors also were accorded Mrs. Harnish. Joseph Quinn, deputy mayor of Los Angeles and a personal friend, forwarded a scroll from the City of Los Angeles, specifically recognizing Mrs. Harnish for her philanthropic work. The scroll, signed by Mayor Sam Yorty and Quinn, was presented to Mrs. Harnish by Mrs. John Mortensen, League president.

Another presentation to Mrs. Harnish was a charm for "Our Most Esteemed Friend", a gift made possible by contributions of Girls' Club members and presented to her by Carmen Ceballos, representing the sixth through eighth grade group.

Congratulatory messages were read by Mrs. Jack Pierce, mistress of ceremonies, from Senators Murphy and Kuchel, Mrs. P. James Kirby, president of National Assistance League; Lt. Gov. Robert Finch and Governor Ronald Reagan. Mrs. Reagan is a member of the charter chapter of National Assistance League.

Chuck Goodspeed of San Bernardino, administrative assistant to Pettis, was among the guests, as were Mrs. Anton Blatnick, Girls' Club director, and Martha Mariscal, Ernestine Franco and Terri Calhoun, Girls' Club members who assisted at the mortgage-burning ceremony. Reed Sprinkel, also a guest, announced Mrs. Harnish's appointment that day by Governor Reagan to the State Building Standards Commission.

Newly-mounted above the fireplace at the League Center in time for the festivities was the National Assistance League emblem in brass, copper and silver. The plaque was designed and executed by Miss Wendy Westphal, an alumnae member of League's Assistens auxiliary, and is a gift to League from its Las Tias auxiliary. Mrs. Gilbert Exalt is decorating chairman.

Mrs. Harnish's interest in League is sparked by its sponsorship of Girls' Club of Cucamonga as one of its main philanthropic projects. Mrs. Harnish at one time asked Mexican-American grade school girls into her home to teach them rudiments of good manners, Mrs. Harnish was given the privilege of burning the mortgage since her donations to the building fund paid the major part of the mortgage.

grooming and cooking. Today, these same activities form the basis for an expanded program offered to Girls' Club members in sessions held four afternoons each week in the Girls' Club portion of the League Center known as the Jerene Appleby Harnish Wing. Mrs. Eric Miller is League chairman of Girls' Club, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Waller. Mrs. Harnish serves as an advisory board member of Girls' Club and is an honorary patroness for League.

Planning the evening of tribute was a League committee including Mrs. Mortensen, Mrs. Rene Blane, Mrs. Thomas Carnesi, whose husband donated his services as building contractor; Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Edmund Accomazzo and Mrs. Walline. Mrs. Robert K. Kelley prepared the hors d'oeuvres.

Pink and burgundy satin ribbons were interlaced through the eyelet border on the bone-colored cloth for the hors d'oeuvre table, which was in charge of Mrs. George Yetter. Silver candleabra held pink tapers. Floral arrangements combining pink mums and burgundy-colored oak leaves were used at the League Center and at Red Hill.

Mrs. Harnish had this to say as the dinner-program closed: "Giving money is easy. It's the hard work the League girls put in that I appreciate."

Richard Hayman and Pops Orchestra to perform here

The second concert of the current season, sponsored by the Upland-Ontario Community Concert Association will feature Richard Hayman and the Manhattan Pops Orchestra.

The concert will be held at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 1, in the Gardiner W. Spring Auditorium, Chaffey High School Campus.

Richard Hayman is a young man with a sound of his own and very definite musical tastes. As a pops orchestral arranger Richard Hayman has few peers.

Since 1954 Hayman has been a guest conductor and arranger for a number of orchestras among them the famous Boston Pops.

His original compositions are standards in the repertoire of that concert orchestra, as well as often-played selections of many orchestras and bands throughout the world.

He was hired by MGM's musical director to work in "Girl Crazy", "As Thousands Cheer", "Meet Me in St. Louis" when these were being filmed.

After working for MGM he was featured soloist and arranger for the Vaughn Monroe Show for four years.

After that he signed a contract with the Mercury Recording Company and later was made Artists and Repertory Chief in New York.

As musical director and arranger, Hayman's credits include the NBC Bandstand, the Schaeffer Circle and innumerable other shows.

His records include the Theme from the Three Penny Opera, "April in Portugal," "High and the Mighty."

The sold out tour for 1967-68 offers a program filled with the kind of music which has made the name of Richard Hayman synonymous with good listening for twenty years.

Hayman and The Manhattan Pops Orchestra have recorded much of this pleasant music -- "The Glory of Spain," "Fidler on the Roof," and "Music from Great Motion Pictures."

Halloween Pathfinders will collect food for Navaho Indians

Forty two West End Seventh-day Adventist youngsters won't be soaping windows or stuffing themselves with candy this Halloween.

Instead, they plan to solicit canned goods that will be sent to the Navaho Indians for their Thanksgiving or any other day meals, according to Pathfinder Leader Lawrence Paulson.

Paulson said local Pathfinders -- a scout-type club for both boys and girls, voted at their last meeting to continue their annual project which they have done for the last several years.

Commented Paulson: "We encourage our youngsters' project because it centers their thoughts on persons who need our help. We want them to learn how to respond to the needs of others in practical ways."

Last year the Pathfinders gathered in over 500 cans of food and a good supply of used clothing which was sent to the Navaho people. So on Halloween night they may be knocking at your door.

This Tuesday night, Oct. 24, they are having a hard-time party, at their regular Pathfinder meeting time, and instead of the usual dues of twenty five cents, they are to bring two cans of food which will get their Navaho Indian Project off to a start.

Methodists practice 'Brotherhood'

On Halloween night, youth from the First Methodist Church in Upland will be on Upland streets from 7 to 9 p.m., not to ask for candy, but for money.

The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, or UNICEF, is where the money will go. With each penny contributed, UNICEF can purchase 5 glasses of milk for the starving people. UNICEF works not only in foreign countries, but also in America.

When someone stops at your door Tuesday, Oct. 31 and they have the orange UNICEF collection box, reach in your pocket and save a few lives.

Help suffering children and encourage our youth to constructive activity on Halloween.

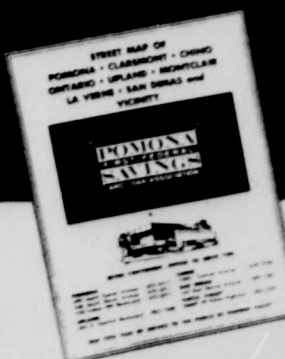

The ancient Romans had their problems with women drivers, too. According to Petroleum Today, lady chauffeurs were not permitted to drive in the city on Sundays or during times of heavy traffic.

CAHPE holds sport meet at Alta Loma

The Pomona Valley Unit of the California Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation is sponsoring five clinics designed to give additional, up-to-date information to teachers, recreation leaders and interested citizens.

The Lifetime Sports Clinic is a national endeavor to teach young people those sports that can become a part of their leisure time after their formal school years. Stress is being placed on the five sports which give the participant adequate activity and leisure from their normal work day.

An Archery Clinic was held at Alta Loma High School October 7, with Lorraine Perzola as the teacher. Forty-two participants learned the skills of shooting and were told the new ideas and up-to-date research of tournament archery.

The biggest part of the program was actual participation in badminton with a small tournament designed to give participants a chance to use their strategy and skills.

Since most schools experience small facilities in large classes, a major part of the presentation was designed to teach how to organize so that all students can get maximum benefit from a badminton class. Miss Mary Pollock was the clinician assisted by Juanita Coon and Jan Cook.

Other clinics will be held October 28, at Chaffey College for tennis; Nov. 4 at Upland High School for Bowling; and December 9, at Upland High School for golf.

Miss Kay Black and Mrs. Joan Clarke of the Tri-County Conservation League gave an illustrated lecture entitled "Why Save a River?"

Slides were shown of the delightful aspects of the Santa Ana River as it flows through the counties of Riverside, San Bernardino and Orange.

Native Daughters were invited to join the League to help keep a "Coast to Crest" greenbelt parkway along the Santa Ana River. Following the lecture, Mrs. Breese entertained members and guests with several organ selections.

Plans were made to attend the courtesy night and Halloween party at Lugonia Parlor in San Bernardino on Thursday Oct. 26. Mrs. James Rose, past president and Mrs. Breese, organist, have been invited to serve as guest officers.

Chess goes modern

Chess, probably the oldest game still being played, has been brought up to date, Americanized, and speeded up and official Football Chess, being produced by an Upland firm, may popularize the game that has frightened a lot of people by its apparent complexity.

It's not so complicated the way Benjamin Neiden of Neiden, Winton & Associates, has revamped the game said to be 4,000 years old. (Chess players will tell you it wasn't really THAT complicated in the first place.)

But now there are fewer pieces, and instead of kings and queens bishops and knights, there are quarter-backs, linemen, ends, full-backs, center, and halfbacks.

There are only 11 pieces where there are 16 in a regular set of chessmen, that is, 16 on a side. The Board full of 32 pieces on 64 squares looked, and was cluttered but with 22, things take on a different appearance.

Neiden and company are distributing only in Southern California in this introductory Christmas season, but expect to go national by next Christmas. Locally the game is being sold by Upland Feed and Fuel.

In addition to modernizing the game of chess, painting football players in person's favorite team colors could develop into quite a hobby. The sets come with one team gold, one silver, but can be painted like any other plastic model. They are solid styrene, "carved" in detail from designs by the Winton twins, both sculptors, Don and Ross, who are associated with Neiden.

Football fans, game lovers, hobbyists, from around eight years old on up seem to find something in the game and/or the figures.

A game for children? John McKay, University of Southern California coach, was pictured using a set of the locally produced chessmen in the Oct. 2 issue of "Sports Illustrated." He uses them as a teaching tool, and so do other college and high school coaches, including two at the Claremont Colleges.

McKay said, "These football models are the greatest tools to learn and teach football formations, strategy and plays, both offensively and defensively I have ever used. I recommend their use by coaches, players and the general public for a better understanding of football."

Neiden, in a demonstration in the office of this newspaper, took five minutes and taught a woman employee more about the game of football and its terms and formations than she had ever known.

They even discussed setting up clinics to teach women to enjoy the game so many husbands and boy friends do using the chess figures.

Neiden was founder, and formerly president of another Upland based firm, the American Institute of Reading, which produced books and records to teach young readers or older ones needing remedial work. He sold that business "to retire," now he's enthusiastically involved in Official Football Chess, his latest creation, which he feels can replace Monopoly as the favorite indoor game in America.

INVENTOR of modernized, speeded up game of chess, Benjamin Neiden, places chessmen football players on board of game he invented, and his firm is producing in an Upland plant.

5. Do you destroy weeds to reduce pollen pollution?

6. Do you have trash and household waste hauled away. Instead of burning?

Sen. Thomas Kuchel, speaking before the County Supervisors Association, lumped smog together with other environmental problems, calling for Federal governmental coordination of its patchwork of programs and new looks at local government attempts to cope with life in the city and suburbs.

Orchardists must apply for heaters

Growers having orchard heaters are reminded that applications for permits must be returned to the San Bernardino County Air Pollution Control District at 172 West Third St., San Bernardino no later than Oct. 31.

Applications must be returned even if the grower does not intend to use the heaters.

Any person who has orchard heaters but does not have a copy of application, or for any other reason needs further information should call Turner 9-0111 Extension 376.

Some swine seem to benefit markedly from supplementary copper in their rations. Play safe and feed them trace mineralized salt.

coming so dangerously contaminated and "patchwork" Federal attempts to cope with this contamination are so confused that, "We will pay dearly if we do not face the need for fundamental reorganization of the Federal effort in environmental control," Kuchel warned.

In addition to urging an executive reorganization of such national efforts as smog control, Kuchel called for a "new look" at organization of local governments trying to cope with environmental problems.

As a third proposal, he made a case for more emphasis on the use of existing military and space technology to benefit domestic human needs.

"The ad hoc creation of Federal environmental programs has resulted in a crazy patchwork quilt of programs, full of duplication and full of holes. I count at least 18 Federal agencies having responsibility in the area of man's environment. There are seven agencies dealing with the air pollution problem alone," Kuchel said. He named thirteen agencies having responsibility in the area of water pollution.

At the local level, "in most of our metropolitan areas, government is frozen in outmoded patterns. As population growth has spilled over into suburbs, the core city has inherited the most difficult social problems of our society," Kuchel stated. He added that the city alone "cannot really cope effectively with environmental problems which transcend its boundaries."

Quimby asks state aid in water project

Assemblyman John P. Quimby has called for diverting a portion of the state's tidelands revenue, if necessary, to complete development of the state's water project as originally envisioned.

"This will cut into a lot of people's pet projects, but it is more important that we deliver what was promised the people when they were asked to approve the bond issue for the water project."

Quimby, a Rialto Democrat, made the statement before leaving for Sacramento and a joint session of the Assembly and Senate Water Committees. The meeting was called to discuss Governor Reagan's proposal that recreational development along the aqueduct be delayed because of financial pressures on the state.

The Assemblyman said he had already conferred with state Senator Gordon Cologne, and both had agreed to fight any cutback in developments along the water project just reaching the southern half of the state.

The water meetings in Sacramento, are only one major event in an incredibly busy week for the San Bernardino County legislator. During the same time the water hearing is going on in Sacramento, another legislative hearing has been scheduled in San Francisco to consider Quimby's request to reorganize the Public Utilities Commission.

"I would like to be there," Quimby said of the San Francisco meeting, "but this water meeting is just so important to my district, that I just have to be there."

Quimby said an aide would represent him at the San Francisco session.

The Assemblyman said that a reorganization of the powerful PUC is needed because its present structure produced undue delays in relatively minor cases.

"I know of one little desert water company in another county that has been waiting three months to get approval to raise the rates, so it can replace some outdated and faulty water lines," he said.

"They now have had two hearings, thousands of pages of transcript, and still no decision. The company can't move ahead and some people aren't getting proper service because of it."

Quimby proposes hearing boards be set up under the commission to hear small cases.

"If our court system was set up like the PUC, we'd have to go to the Supreme Court to pay a ticket for overtime parking."

Quimby opened this week sitting with the Rules Committee in San Bernardino on hearings into the furniture building programs carried out in the state prisons.

Man suggests cure for cycle problem

Bruce Smith of 8245 Hillside, Alta Loma, has come up with what he feels is the cure for motorcycle riders who utilize an area near Red Hill for their amusement -- a motorcycle riding course not unlike a miniature golf course.

The inventor of the Honda originated the idea in Japan for skill courses for motorcyclists, and they will be franchised in the United States, Smith revealed.

He suggested anyone wishing to get such a franchise contact the Honda distributor in Los Angeles.

San Bernardino County will swing into the spotlight when The California Exposition starts its first full year of pageants and programs in the spring of 1969.

That's the promise of E.R. Lemmon, Cal Expo general manager.

The 630-acre Exposition is now rising on the north bank of Sacramento's American River. During its first 12 years, the permanent, year-round "Showcase of the Golden State" will attract a projected 10 million out-of-state visitors.

"Each one of those visitors will hear or read the name of San Bernardino County at least half a dozen times," according to Lemmon, "and each will receive at least that many strong incentives to pay San Bernardino County a personal visit."

"San Bernardino County's lakes like Arrowhead and Big Bear, its Desert playgrounds and Colorado River resorts are natural tourist lures which The California Exposition will highlight in encouraging out-of-state guests to visit there," he continued.

Cable Airport. Councilmen discovered that HUD's Washington office and San Francisco offices don't communicate, don't want the same things from the city. They received only discouragement in San Francisco last week.

Council set the date of Nov. 28 for public hearings on the Town Center Project and debt limit report of the project.

Parking bids were reviewed, and award Nov. 21, date of the sale of bonds, to Payne - Wheatley of Upland, was indicated.

Payne - Wheatley submitted the low bid of $3,601.98 which will be reduced by the deletion of some parking on the immediate southeast corner of First Ave. and C. St.

Three other bidders submitted figures ranging up to $52,903.

Also reviewed were the Civic Center bids reported in the last issue of the News. Successful bidder is Earle

Reading problem? solution offered

Is the ability to read and comprehend the written word a problem for California school children today, and if so what do parents do when they discover that Johnnie or Susie are not quite up to grade level or perhaps two to three years behind their peers?

Many questions come to mind. How did this happen? Why did it happen? How bad is the problem? Where did they get lost and what can we do about it? Where can we find help?

Two men, both credentialed teachers and members of the Covina Unified School District, Warren Kirkpatrick and Donald Watters appear to have found answers to some of these questions and more important, they have the means of offering the help these children need.

Kirkpatrick and Watters have recently opened the West End Reading Center, Inc. at 732 N. Mountain, Upland, a remedial reading center which offers individualized instruction for each student enrolled. The school is open to students from grade one through college level and offers courses in remedial, developmental, and accelerated reading, in addition to courses in modern math.

"The success of the Kirkpatrick method is based on the one to one basis of instructor and student, and geared to the needs of the student," Kirkpatrick states.

The reading center offers a complete standardized testing program at no cost to the parent in an effort to determine the exact cause or area of the reading problem. When the problem is pinpointed the teachers set up an individual program designed for the particular student, of whom 90 percent are boys.

"Progress in many cases is amazing," reports Kirkpatrick, who has worked with over 1,200 students in the past three years. "Of course," he added, "progress also depends primarily on the student's desire to correct the reading fault."

Kirkpatrick and Watters originally developed the Upland College Reading Center, which became the Upland Reading Center, when the college was sold. They have now incorporated under the name of the West End Reading Center and continue with the original program they instituted at the college.

Kirkpatrick attributes his success with the program to the fact that he as a teacher, is not emotionally involved with the students and frustrations are eliminated and the program develops along a positive line.

YOUR ABILITY TO READ -- doesn't improve as you get older if you don't have a good basic foundation learned in the first three years of school, so this teenage boy has enrolled with Warren Kirkpatrick, director of the West End Reading Center in an effort to bring himself up to grade level. Kirkpatrick is seen giving undivided attention to this boy's needs.

MASS START, LONE FINISH--but riding a bicycle from Foothill and Euclid 16 miles to the Mt. Baldy ski lift isn't an easy trip. About 30 pedaled away from the Suft Shirt at 8 a.m. Sunday, only about half finished. Winner of the third annual Simpson Memorial race, sanctioned by the Amateur Bicycle League of America, was Bob McNellis of North Hollywood, who made it up the hill in one hour, 23 minutes and 36 seconds, followed less than a minute later by Del Scharffenberg of Riverside, and third overall was Plo Lenzi of the South Bay club, less than a minute behind the second man. Riders appreciated the clear air at the top after the start in less clear atmosphere.

70 participate in YMCA membership roundup

Judy Foronda
Private Judy F. Foronda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

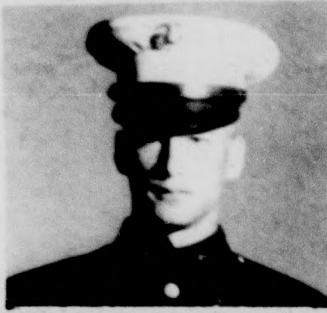

Eddie S. Foronda, 1455 Estrellita Court, Upland, completed eight weeks of basic training at the Women's Army Corps Center, Ft. McClellan, Ala., Oct. 6. She received instruction in Army history and traditions, administrative procedures, military justice, first aid and field training.

Donald Howell

Marine Private Donald R. Howell, son of Mrs. Marilyn J. Howell of 8791 Sierra Madre, Cucamonga, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment. The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork. A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

Clark Miyashiro

Master Sergeant Clark K. Miyashiro (left), son of Mr. and Mrs. Matsui Miyashiro, Punahoa, Maui, Hawaii, received the Army Commendation Medal during ceremonies near Saigon, Vietnam, Oct. 2.

Sgt. Miyashiro received the award for meritorious service against hostile forces during his tour of duty in Vietnam from February 1967 to October 1967.

Marine Lance Corporal Stephen J. Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Olson of 432 N. Euclid Ave., all of Upland, has completed his third "on-the-line" period off the coast of North Vietnam aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Constellation.

The 33-day line period came on the heels of a previous 36-day tour in the Gulf of Tonkin. The Constellation, in port at Subic Bay in the Philippines for only five days, was called upon to replace the fire-damaged USS Forrestal.

Pilots from the carrier's air wing hit the Lang Son Bridge, the major supply link for North Vietnam, and destroyed surface-to-air missile sites at An Phu, seven miles west of Hanoi. Air strikes accounted for the destruction of 115 barges, 67 trucks, three patrol boats and 18 bridges.

William Munson

Aviation Electronics Technician Third Class William R. Munson, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted D. Munson of 1153 Eddington Dr., Upland, and the husband of the former Miss Susan S. Hunter of Claremont, is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Intrepid off the coast of North Vietnam.

In Intrepid's aircraft, which fly support missions against targets in North Vietnam, recently hit the 658-foot steel and concrete Keen An bridge.

The bridge, considered by U.S. officials to be a major supply link for the enemy, lost two of its seven spans. Another span was damaged.

The Norfolk, Va., based carrier has been at "Yankee Station" in the gulf since June.

AL adds Workman's scalp, should collect Gladstone's

Alta Loma High remains one of two unbeaten teams in the Hacienda League, and took another giant step toward the title Friday night, clobbering Workman High, 31-6.

Play didn't start out that way. It was 6-6 in the second quarter with seconds left to go, but Ruben Romo intercepted a pass, galloped 85 yards to a touchdown, to make it 12-6 as the half ended.

Something else seems to have ended then, too, because the Braves made it a new ball game after the halftime, scoring a third six-pointer in the third quarter and two more in the fourth, along with a point after touchdown.

Romo stole a couple other Workman aerials to round out his defensive efforts that earned him accolades for the night.

During that first half when the Lobos looked like a match for the usually more powerful Braves, Quarterback Rocky Long had three passes intercepted by Workman, and things didn't look too good.

However, that second half was a thriller for the home fans. The Braves couldn't be stopped.

Despite the three aerial losses to Workman in the first half, the record for the night stands at six passes completed out of 11 tries for nearly 100 yards of real estate.

First TD scored for the Braves came on a Jeff King-Rocky Long pass good for 30 yards and six points.

Both Long and King had a good night (despite the fact that King's father passed away Friday). They tied with 66 yards each, King on 16 carries, Long on 10. Steve Williams made his presence felt with 47 yards on four runs, and Bob Williams added 21 on four.

It was Steve Williams who tallied the first AL TD in the second half as the Braves dominated the game. He carried 15 up the middle to pay dirt, capping a 70-yard campaign that took only six plays.

Long scored the next six-pointer on a five-yard keeper in the fourth quarter, and Tom Fowkes ran successfully for the only extra point the Braves enjoyed.

Final tally was a Long-King pass play for 10 yards.

Statistics during the second half resembled the scoring, Al all the way; for instance, 135 yards rushing, while Workman could pick up only 20.

For the game, AL racked up 315 yards, Workman 182. Rushing it was 217 vs. 172, and passing, 98 vs. 9. Alta Loma punted only once in the game.

Saturday night is game night this week, with Gladstone scheduled to try to knock the Braves off their half of the throne in the Hacienda League at Citrus College field. Braves are easy favorites.

The other half of the Hacienda throne at the moment belongs to Royal Oak. Roy Oak has scored 98 points, and has had only one TD and one PAT scored against them, just a shade better than Alta Loma, whose record is 89 for, 13 against.

Hawks get bowl bid

Chalk up more victories for the Upland Hawks and Chargers in Pop Warner competition, and a bowl invitation for the Hawks.

Because of their undefeated, untied season, the Hawks have been invited to play in the Fresno Raisin Bowl Thanksgiving week end.

HAWKS Upland Hawks continued in the victory trail by defeating the Fontana Bucks, 20-6 on Sunday, Oct. 22, at the Steeler Bowl in Fontana.

Fontana was first on the scoreboard after a nine-yard run by Walburn netted the Bucks their only six points of the game.

The second quarter saw the Hawks rack up 14 points. Rudy Alonzo crossed the final distance of five yards with Raul Abrego running over for the extra point.

Next score was made on a pass from Alonzo to Gary Ware covering 16 yards.

Neal Boring took a hand off and ran over for the PAT. The fleet-footed Rudy Alonzo again showed his speed in the second half when he intercepted a pass and ran 85 yards for the Uplands final six points.

The fine defensive play of the Upland squad and the individual efforts of boys like Richard Cramer and Steve Harness, are credited with holding the tough Fontana team to 6 points. Steve Harness has shown his alertness by recovering a total of five fumbles in the last two games.

CHARGERS

In a hotly contested battle, the Upland Chargers remained undefeated winning 19-13, over the Upland T-Birds in PeeWee football.

Early in the first quarter Joe McKellar ran 50 yards for the T-Birds' first score. PAT no good. At the end of the first quarter the T-Birds on their 9-yard line, Rocky Chapman intercepted a pass on the 14 yard line. A pass to David Carter was good for seven yards; Rocky Chapman ran for five yards, and finally pushed it over from the one-foot line. PAT no good.

The T-Birds were unable to move the ball after the kick-off, and kicked to Rocky Chapman who ran it back 13 yards to the T-Birds' 35-yard line. A pass from Chapman to Norman Falls was good for 20 yards. David Carter then threw a pass to Chapman on the seven-yard line, and he ran it over for the Chargers' second score.

With two minutes to half-time the Chargers had the ball on the 29-yard line of the T-Birds. Bob Rabun threw a pass to Rocky Chapman for another TD. David Carter ran it over for the PAT.

Games next Sunday, Oct. 29 - Upland Hawks vs. Fontana Grizzlies at Alta Loma; Upland T-Birds vs. Bloomington Bears at Alta Loma, and Upland Chargers vs. Fontana Elks at Fontana.

Upland continues SAL championship chase

Upland High seeks its fourth straight San Antonio League victory when the Highlanders take on the Garey High Vikings Friday night at Highlander Stadium, after turning back upset-minded Montclair.

Defense plus the talented toe of Upland's Gary Kogut was the reason for the Highlanders' win over Montclair High last week as Upland squeezed past the Cavaliers, 7 to 6.

The defending SAL champion Cavaliers started off looking like the team of old as they took the opening kick-off and drove 60 yards on 10 plays to score. Dwight Delyser showing the speed he is noted for took a 22 yard pass down the middle from quarterback Jim Monson to climax the scoring drive.

Monson elected to pass for the extra point, but the Highlanders' Ray Bell spoiled the attempt by intercepting in the end zone, keeping the Cavalier lead at 6.

Apparently fired up by the near upset of Claremont, Montclair's defense stopped Upland on four plays and continued to show the offensive ability by penetrating to the Highlander 28. How-

Third quarter was scoreless with both teams playing heads-up ball. Joe McKellar ran 20 yards for a TD but was called back on a penalty.

With only 3-1/2 minutes to play in the fourth quarter, the T-Birds in possession of the ball on the Chargers' 30-yard line, a pass to Joe McKellar netted 20 yards for the TD. Tom Mitchell ran for the PAT. The Chargers ended the game in possession of the ball.

Charger Coach Dave Zuccolotto and Assistant Jim Taylor congratulated the boys on their well earned victory and named Bob Rabun, David Carter and Rocky Chapman as outstanding. The team gave the three boys a big hip-hip-hooray after the game.

ever, Upland's defense proved to be too great an obstacle for Montclair as the Highlanders pushed the Cavaliers back to the 35. In two plays the visiting "Scotch" had the ball on their 47 with a first down.

Upland's field general, Vance Willison, took to the air, but Cavalier linebacker Darrell Cederlind intercepted the toss, returning the ball to the Highlander 30 yard line. The Cavaliers, determined to up their lead, succeeded in penetrating to the Upland eight-yard line. On "fourth down and one" Rich Seamanshot through the Montclair line to nail full-back Cederlind for no gain and the Highlanders took over.

After driving to the Cavalier 45 Upland yielded the pigskin to Montclair on downs. On the move again the Cavaliers drove to the 10 of Upland. Defensive tackle Frank Williams saved the game for the Highlanders by throwing Monson for a loss on the 20 yard line. With a fourth downplay from the 17 the Cavalier quarterback lofted the ball to end Jim Stowers in the end zone, but the taller defender, Dale Magruder stepped in front to bat it down, thus preventing the score.

With about a minute to go in the half the Highlanders finally got things rolling with two passes from Willison to Steve Quinn and Jim Cooper, covering 40 yards to the Cavalier 33. On the last play of the half Willison lifted a pass to Magruder on the Montclair two yard line. The Upland end caught the pass but was unable to score as defensive back Bill Daniels brought the receiver to the turf, one yard short of pay-dirt, as the period ended.

The lockerroom pep talk must have done Uplandsome good. Catching the opening kick-off, Ray Bell returned the ball to his own 38 Cary and Jim Cooper, alternating in running plays, ground out the yardage to the Cavalier three-yard line where Gary plowed over for the tying tally. Kogut put his team on top to stay with a perfect conversion through the uprights.

The Cavaliers penetrated deep into the opposition's territory on two other occasions-- to the five and twenty yard lines -- but the Upland defense rose to the challenge to stop the drives.

Outstanding defensively for Upland were Ray Bell, Rich Seaman and Tony Price. All three were responsible for numerous penetrations into the Montclair backfield to cut down Cavalier runners.

Also helping the Upland cause was Greg Kogut who punted some fine highspirals out of trouble on fourth downsituations. Also it was Kogut's kicking ability which provided the one-point margin of victory.

COME TO DADDY, BABY -- but it didn't. A slight overthrow to Upland end Dale Magruder, all alone near the goal line, resulted in no completion and no touchdown, but the Highlanders didn't need it anyway, finishing the game with a one-point advantage, 7-6.

Entertainment set at church

Glenn L. Schmekel, Sunday School Superintendent, formerly of Cucamonga, announced today that the musical saw, played by Walter Rieder, Upland life insurance man, will be featured during the 9:45 A.M. Sunday School on Sunday, October 29th at the Bonita Avenue Advent Christian Church 2400 Bonita Avenue, La Verne.

Mr. Schmekel stated that Mr. Rieder will first play on his professional musical saw and then will play on his "Henry Danton" carpenter saw which he obtained from the Good Will Industries in Chicago which some one had discarded. Songs will include, "Lord, I Need Thee Every Hour", "Trust and Obey", and "Near the Cross."

The Rev. Philip L. Shuman, pastor, stated that there are classes for all ages and everyone in the community is invited to attend.

'Gazebo' to play on three nights

A play that makes a laughing matter out of murder will be staged at Chaffey College's little theater, Nov. 2-3-4.

The Chaffey Players will present the Alec Coppel comedy, "The Gazebo," under the direction of Ralph Strane. Curtain for each performance will be at 8:30 p.m.

The comedy pivots upon a writer of television whodunits concerned with the fabrication of perfect crimes who gets a challenge from real life to commit one. He is motivated to murder when his television actress wife becomes the target of blackmail.

Adding to the complication of the plot will be Dick Moore, Ontario, as the bewildered district attorney who lives next door.

Taking the part of the writer -- who, by the way, bungles the job -- will be David Graham of Etiwanda. In the role of his actress wife will be Lupe Calzada, Upland.

Others in the cast are Donna McAllister and Jimmie Jo Kibler, both of Ontario. Ernie Sweet, Montclair; Dar Kennedy, Corona; Don Blis-hop, Fontana; Bill Beck, Prescott Foster and Richard Rottman, all of Upland, and Stephen Williams, Claremont.

Man suggests cure

Bruce Smith of 8245 Hillside, Alta Loma, has come up with what he feels is the cure for motorcycle riders who utilize an area near Red Hill for their amusement -- a motorcycle riding course not unlike a miniature golf course.

He suggested anyone wishing to get such a franchise contact the Honda distributor in Los Angeles.

162 from SB county colleges transfer to Cal State at SB

Barely half of the 331 students who transferred into California State College at San Bernardino this September came from colleges in San Bernardino County.

The bulk of these, 135 students, came to CASC from San Bernardino Valley College.

Fourteen transferred in from Chaffey College, six from Victor Valley College, three from Barstow College, two from the University of Redlands, and one each from Loma Linda University and Upland College.

This totals 162 transfers from San Bernardino County institutions. Upland College is no longer in operation. These statistics are based upon the student's last college attended.

Another 66 transferred to CASC from Riverside County colleges, 36 came from Riverside City College, 15 from UC Riverside, five from Mt. San Jacinto College, four from College of the Desert, three from La Sierra College, two from California Baptist College and one from Palo Verde College.

The 103 students who transferred to CASC from outside the two-county area came from 37 California colleges and 23 states.

More than 100,000 men have been designated Naval Aviators at the U.S. Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., since naval aviation began in 1914.

UHS tops Cavaliers in running

Upland High's varsity cross country squad upped its record to 5 and 0 last Friday as the visiting Highlanders defeated the Montclair High Harriers 23-35 at the Cavaliers' home course.

Howard Adams of Montclair salvaged first place, however, as he led all runners around the Rock Quarry layout with a 10:08 minute clocking. Following him were Gary Bayer and Joe Rodriguez of Upland with the Cavaliers' Mike Torrez finishing fourth. Four more Highlanders finished after Torrez before the third Montclair runner appeared.

In the Junior Varsity event Upland again was the victor winning by a 26-34 margin. Dave Keebler of Upland crossed the finish line first in 11:15. First for Montclair and second in the race was Nick Marino. Upland has a 4 win, 1 loss mark while the Cavaliers sport a 4 and 2 record.

The Fresh-sophomore fray again proved too much of a challenge for Montclair as the Highlanders recorded their fourth victory. Bob Henderson of Upland came in first followed by two other Upland harriers before the first Montclair runner crossed the finish line. Both teams have the same records as their junior varsity squads.

Cub leader appointed

More than forty-one hundred boys between the ages of eight and ten are Cub Scouts in the communities of Pomona, Walnut, Diamond Bar, San Dimas, La Verne, Montclair, Claremont, Upland, Ontario, Chino, Alta Loma, Cucamonga, Etiwanda and Fontana.

The Pow Wow registration fee, which includes lunch, books and other supplies is $1.50 per person.

County employees get communications course

County of San Bernardino has just completed its telephone communications program, it was announced by Board Chairman Daniel D. Mikesell.

Mikesell explained the program as beneficial to the Veterans and County Employees. There were 925 employees (about one fifth the total work force) who completed the program. The program content included lecture meetings conducted by a telephone consultant and follow up discussion groups. Among the problems discussed were: Problems with the main switchboard, departmental problems, equipment problems and county telephone system, request for personnel training, problems with the telephone directory, discussion of problem callers and how to handle them, departmental directives for proper telephone procedure, problems with other departments, and communications between branch offices and Courthouse. "The discussion groups were more successful. Helpful hints and mutual consideration on handling difficult calls were exchanged; suggestions were submitted for improvement in procedures in the telephone directory. This program was very beneficial," said Mikesell. "The immediate effects were corrections made and improvements noted for the future. The official report also recommended that one person in each department be given responsibility for training new personnel in telephone skills and that the Communications Department consider issuing certificates of telephone proficiency and courtesy. The suggestion was made that the orientation program for courthouse switchboard operators include a wide knowledge of all County departments." "It is our feeling that continuing and consistent effort be made to handle the public's telephone calls with courtesy and expedience," said Mikesell.

Nuclear information exhibit to visit HS

A mobile nuclear information exhibit which tells the atomic energy story from Einstein to electrical generation will be shown for the benefit of the science classes at Upland High School from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Nov. 26 and 27. Presented by Southern California Edison Company, the trailer exhibit graphically illustrates the nuclear process, its uses and potential, according to C. G. Shores, Edison's local manager. Highlights of the entertaining, educational exhibit are animated panels which illustrate the information using simulated action accompanied by a tape-recorded audio explanation. For instance, an atomic chain reaction is demonstrated with hundreds of tiny lights. At the touch of a button, the reaction begins with the lighting of a few bulbs, followed quickly by many others, to give the visual effect of a moving reaction. A tape-recorded voice automatically describes the action as it occurs.

Panels in Edison's exhibit also show the forms of radiation, their principal sources and some of their natural, industrial or medical effects and uses. Methods for shielding some forms of radiation also are demonstrated, according to the electric company official.

How nuclear energy is being adapted by the nation's electric companies as a new source of heat for otherwise conventional steam-electric plants either operating, under construction or planned in this country, the Edison official said. "Southern California Edison, which has operated a pioneer nuclear - electric plant at Santa Susana, Calif., on an experimental basis since 1957, is presenting this exhibit to give the public a clearer understanding of nuclear energy. The subject has proved to be of vital interest to all because of the many benefits it promises present and future generations," he said.

Auxiliary to keep program

A regular meeting of the 25th District American Legion Auxiliary was held in Yermo with the Yermo Auxiliary as hostess. The meeting convened with chairman reporting on past and future activities pertinent to all Unit Auxiliary members.

The group voted to continue with the "Operation Send Off" at Norton Air Force Base according to president, Mrs. Howard Scott of San Bernardino. The community service chairman, Mrs. Mary Selby of Rialto, reported that two community projects which would affect the entire county were being considered. They were: Help to the Indian children in San Bernardino County and the children's program at the San Bernardino Community Center.

Mrs. Arthur Novelli, Ontario Unit 112, reported that an orientation and indoctrination course at Patton State Hospital would be held Thursday, Nov. 9 beginning at 9:30 a.m. with hospital staff and American Legion State Rehabilitation chairman Mrs. Donald Carlson and Mrs. Novelli conducting the course.

Anyone wishing to take this course is invited to attend whether a member of an organization or not, for the purpose of education as well as volunteer work.

Chaffey joins training program for unemployed

Fred Felsch was named to head up Chaffey College's Inland Empire Training Program for the hard core unemployed by the board of trustees.

Federal funds apportioned for Chaffey's role in the project are assured in the amount of $180,917.

Felsch will continue in his present post as chairman of the industrial-technical division but with some of his duties shared by other staff to allow sufficient time for coordination of the new program.

Target date for the initiation of the off-campus training program is November when three courses will be offered at the Chaffey-leased hangar at Ontario International Airport.

Courses scheduled are for the training of machine operators, 40 weeks; auto mechanics, 40 weeks, and auto body repairmen, two 20-week sessions. Other courses under consideration are for the development of household appliance repairmen, groundsman gardeners and nurse's aides.

Total program for the eight participating junior colleges in San Bernardino and Riverside counties will provide training in a broad spectrum of critical work categories for 855 persons. Chaffey's first phase of offerings will account for 80 trainees.

"Objective of the program is to salvage the potentially employable who would otherwise look to welfare for support," Chaffey president Harry D. Wiser said. "The courses are structured to meet the community needs in each college district," Dr. Wiser commented.

Other colleges involved in the program are Mount San Jacinto, San Bernardino Valley, Riverside City, College of the Desert, Palo Verde, Victor Valley and Barstow.

The Chaffey trustees approved a training program for power sewing machine operators for a 10-week period with the option to continue the project based upon industrial demand.

The approval of the program was in response to a proposal by the Chino Council of Social Services, the Chino Chamber of Commerce and the Chino Unified School District.

This program is planned for 25 trainees at an expense of $4,750 offset by an average daily attendance revenue of $6,280, with Tina's of California furnishing some of the basic equipment.

The Trustees approved also Dr. Wiser's recommendation in regard to factors determining the need for a second Chaffey College campus. These factors are:

1. - Development of the present 200-acre campus to its maximum optimum capacity of 7500 full time students. (Present enrollment in this category is 2641.)
2. - Reaching a minimum optimum enrollment of 5000 full time students, with a steady increase indicated, as the time for the board to consider the acquisition of another site. The new site should accommodate at least 1500 full time students.

3. - Development of a 10-year master construction plan under continual review and revision encompassing parent campus expansion and new campus projection.

4. - Decision against adding to the size of the present campus which has 51 acres reserved for further expansion.

The board ratified a revised application under State Entitlement IV to finance additions and improvements of the business education building and gymnasium and modification of the library.

The construction represents a cost of $743,000 with the state providing $392,000 and the district $351,000.

The vocational-technical building proposed in the original application will be included in the 10-year master plan.

'Amahl' cast auditions date set

Auditions for the title role in "Amahl and the Night Visitors," requiring a boy soprano, will be held at 4:30 p.m., Nov. 3, in the Chaffey College little theater.

The Chaffey music and drama departments will present the Gian-Carlo Menotti opera as a Christmas community special, Dec. 14-15-16. The production will be co-directed by Joyce Shannon and Ralph Strane.

Mrs. Shannon said that the role of Amahl is "a challenge both musically and dramatically." Candidates for the part should be prepared to sing "Don't Cry, Mother Dear" from the Christmas classic, preferably with the music memorized.

A copy of the song may be obtained by calling Mrs. Shannon at the college, 987-1737 or 822-7456 or 626-9811. Her extensions are 244 or 279.

The college will provide an accompanist at the auditions. Auditions for adult parts, open to all Chaffey College students, will be at 3 p.m., Oct. 26.

Prof authors book to aid frosh

Practical pointers to help a student through his first year in college are offered in a new book by Chaffey College professor Elwood Chapman.

"So You're a College Freshman," just published by Science Research Associates, is meant to ease a student's critical transition from the high school plateau to the higher education level.

For many freshmen, the Chapman book could make the difference on the positive side between the well adjusted college student and the college dropout.

Chapman gives timely tips on achieving psychological and emotional adjustment, attaining academic success, laying the groundwork for a career and setting a course for a balanced life. "Today's college student has a longer and more frustrating search for a suitable and rewarding career than his parents did," Chapman observes in his book. He points out that occupational society is more sophisticated and the pressures greater.

The Chaffey faculty member concentrates primarily on the student who goes to a commuter university or junior college and tells how easily into the trap of taking his college career lightly. He writes that freedom is one of the great advantages of college life but that freedom must be used in a mature and responsible manner if it is to serve as a benefit.

To help the student get organized, Chapman relates actual case studies. He discusses course programming learning methods, taking written and oral examinations handling assignments, the implications of the draft, and working part-time.

The 170-page book is lucidly written and cartoon illustrated.

Cancer Dressings for patients.

Activities of the Memorial Cancer Dressings Stations in the State of California were demonstrated by the sponsors, the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, at the annual meeting held recently in Anaheim.

Mrs. Dale Gross and Mrs. William Morrow, chairman and co-chairman of the Upland Station, attended and worked at different booths, demonstrating the dressings and other articles made by volunteers, all of which are provided free to cancer patients.

The regular monthly meeting of the Upland station will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 5th at 611 North Third Avenue from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with time at noon for a sack lunch.

Coffee, tea and dessert will be furnished.

Cities League agree smoke tax change

Proposals made by member cities of the 35th Assembly District to change the method of cigarette tax distribution met with apparent success at the League of California Cities, meeting in San Francisco, when it was agreed by resolution that inequities exist in the current distribution of cigarette taxes to the cities, and must be changed by the California State Legislature.

The resolution came on the heels of a meeting held by Assemblyman John V. Briggs, among the 13 cities of the 35th Assembly District, at which 55 councilmen and city officials agreed to urge the League of Cities to take action to change the cigarette tax laws. The resolution was taken to the Executive board of the League by Councilman Duane Winters of Fullerton, a member of the executive board.

The Briggs meeting was the only of its kind to be held in the state prior to the league's meeting although a storm of protest has been heard from numerous cities unhappy with the current formula for distribution.

Briggs, whose district includes portion of both Orange and San Bernardino counties, said, "Naturally, I'm pleased that our cities were able to make their views known to the California League of Cities. If the problem of inequitable distribution of the cigarette tax funds is going to be solved, cooperation must come from this organization. I have offered to carry legislation to correct this situation and would be happy to carry a League suggested bill."

The resolution adopted by the League of Cities pointed out the inequities ranging from $1 per capita income for some (residential) cities to $2000 per capita for other (industrial) cities.

It was further resolved that "every city that had a local cigarette tax ordinance on Aug. 1 be paid at least as much from such allocation as it raised under its own locally administered ordinance."

The resolution was adopted by the General Assembly of the League on Wednesday morning.

According to Briggs, "it's a credit to the cities of the 35th District that they were able to present a unified effort to the California League of Cities to correct this problem. The residents of this area are fortunate to have such able representation."

Beginning typing class starting

A beginners typing class, which in nine weeks can equip a student to type 40 words a minute, will start on Nov. 13.

Registration is now under way at the Adult Evening School office located in the Gardner W. Spring Auditorium on the Chaffey High School campus. Registration hours are between 1 and 4:30 and 6:30 to 9 p.m. each day, Monday through Thursday. Enrollment will be limited to the first 40 persons to register.

Other classes that adults may enter at this time include Clothing Construction, Monday nights 7 to 10 p.m. (instructions in dressmaking, alterations and family sewing); Americanization, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7 to 9 p.m. (Citizenship study for adults who desire to become an American citizen); English for the Foreign Speaking (Classes for adults who are learning to speak English).

There is no tuition charge for the above courses although the student must purchase his own books and supplies.

'Ride around block' ends in 3 deaths

It was just a ride "around the block" with a 32-year-old Upland man giving two 13-year-old Ontario girls a demonstration ride in his sports car, but it resulted in the deaths of all three Wednesday.

Driver of the car was Kenneth L. Perryman of 1292 Randy, Apt. A., Upland, a heavy equipment operator. The girls were identified as Linda Simmons, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simmons of Ontario, and Rhonda O'Dell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll of Ontario.

The accident occurred at Sixth and Vineyard. The car was demolished after hitting a sharp dip, flying through the air, skidding, bouncing and rolling some 600 feet in a field. The occupants were thrown out.

Perryman worked for the O'Dell girl's father, and she was reported to have asked him for a ride.

The Upland man was a native of Iowa and an Upland resident two years. He was a Korean veteran.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Joanne Perryman, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art-

Papers get back pat

California Congressman Jerry Pettis lauded "the hard-working people who give us our newspapers" Saturday in a National Newspaper Day interview.

"Facing almost insuperable odds," said Pettis, "these indefatigable people, from editors to newspaper boys, have actually increased the impact of their papers on the people who live in our cities."

Harvey W. Rodgers, 1552 Columbine Way, and Joe J. Serrao, 583 Tulare Way, have received the Insurance Industry's National Quality Award.

Two receive quality award

The National Quality Award is sponsored by the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Life Insurance Agency Management Association. The award is granted to underwriters who maintain a high percentage of the insurance they have sold.

Preschool immunization clinic hours changed

West End Health Center has a new schedule for its immunization clinics. These clinics are for preschool children of parents who cannot afford to have the shots given by a private physician.

If the child is under the care of a private physician, the parents must bring a signed release slip from the doctor to be eligible for the Health Department service.

The clinics are now being held on the second Tuesday of each month from 9 to 11 a.m. for families living East of Euclid Avenue. The fourth Tuesday of each month, 9 to 11 a.m. is for the families who live West of Euclid.

This schedule will continue as long as a need for the service appears to exist in our community.

Gas stations, drive-in cafes on PC agenda

Service station and drive-in food establishments will come up for discussion at the Upland Planning Commission which meets Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

On the agenda is consideration of an amendment to the municipal code relating to location criteria for gas stations, and definition of "grand opening" for enforcement of temporary advertising sign devices.

A study session appears on the agenda concerning drive-in cafes, another recurring problem to cities throughout Southern California, as are gas stations.

Also on the agenda are--

- a zone change from A-1 to commercial for 9.5 acres on the northeast corner of 19th St. and Mountain Ave., requested by Mountain Avenue Associates of Newport Beach.
- an amendment to the general plan which would change the proposed land use, streets and highways and recreation designations of certain areas in the city.
- a variance requested by George B. Taunton of 248 N. 10th Ave. to permit encroachment of an attached garage into a required 10-foot side yard.
- and three parcels maps, to split a lot on the South side of Arrow east of Benson; 3 parcels on the southwest corner of San Antonio and Ninth St.; and four parcels on the south side of Mesa Ct. some 200 feet east of Campus.

Navy eases re-enlisting

The Navy will consider reenlistments in the Navy in the rate at which a man was discharged or separated from active duty up to six months from the date of separation.

Previously, a man would have been required to revert back one pay grade automatically after three months.

Although most Navy men have been preliminarily accepted, the chief of naval personnel would like to review all applications before making final determination.

The Bureau of Naval Personnel continues to make changes in an effort to improve the Navy for career minded people and it is its sincere hope that all Ex-Navy men who have been separated less than six months, will take advantage of this unique opportunity to return to the Navy with out any reduction in pay grade.

It is also possible to guarantee the coast of your choosing prior to your reenlistment oath. So you see it is not too late after all.

Please drop by our office so that we can discuss the specifics of what the Navy can offer you on reenlistment. If you would rather call, our phone number is YU-8624. Our address is 123 W. Holt Blvd., Ontario, Calif.

what's in a name?

Our full name is "The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company."

But, to most, we're "A&P" for short.

And some friends like to call us "The Tea Company."

Why? Well, in 1859, when A&P began, our first product was tea.

We bought full shiploads from the Orient and sold it at great savings to the public.

You learn a lot about tea in more than 100 years.

Today, you can savor the results of all that experience by tasting one of A&P's fine tea products: Our Own Tea Bags, for example.

Each bag contains up to 15 of the world's finest teas, from as many as 5 different countries.

It can take that many to develop our distinct blend.

So now you know why, by some, we're called "The Tea Company."

If you'd like to know why we're called "Great," shop A&P this week.
